RINCON TRIBE TO DONATE OVER $85,000 TO LOCAL ORGANIZATIONS

Tribe continues its commitment of giving

WHO: Rincon Band of Luiseño Indians

WHAT: Please join the Rincon Tribe as they recognize organizations and charities who are improving lives through education, veterans assistance, small business advocacy and legal representation.

“With all that is going on in the world today, our neighbors and communities need us to step up and help in any way we can,” stated Chairman Bo Mazzetti of the Rincon Tribe. “During these difficult times, the Rincon people are proud and humbled to be able to continue and even expand our tradition of giving and sharing with others. We hope to positively impact the lives of many families through these donations.”

Final Honor, The Burn Institute, K9 Companions, Oceanside Chamber – Harbor Days and CA Indian Legal Services will all be receiving donations to help support their important local programs. “This funding is absolutely critical for us to maintain our vitally important services,” said Suzanne Porter of Final Honor. “We are deeply grateful to the people of Rincon for this most generous donation.”

WHEN: Monday, September 13, 2021

10:30am

WHERE: Rincon Government Center
One Government Center Lane
Valley Center, CA 92082

About the Rincon Tribe

The Rincon Band of Luiseño Indians is a sovereign government recognized by the United States of America. The Tribe owns Harrah’s Resort Southern California and uses profits from this and other commercial enterprises to provide government services including police and environmental enforcement; economic development; healthcare and culture programs; and a tribal court. At no cost to taxpayers, Rincon’s public safety operations respond to emergencies in the
