RINCON DESCENDANT EDUCATION SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

Rincon Tribal Code § 17.150

§ 17.150     FINDINGS AND PURPOSE

(a) The combination of the extremely troubled history of Indian education, forced cultural assimilation in government-run boarding schools, chronic under funding by the federal government to Indian education programs and persistent generational poverty have resulted in substantial deficits in educational attainment of Rincon Tribal Members and their Lineal Descendants relative to mainstream United States populations.

(b) Historically, Rincon Tribal Members and Lineal Descendants have had low levels of access to quality pre-school programs, primary, secondary and post- secondary educational systems and, as a result, low levels of educational attainment.

(c) To address the historical effects on access to quality education and improve educational performance and achievement of Tribal Members and Lineal Descendants, this Ordinance shall establish an educational program to fund Tribal Government educational benefits for Eligible Lineal Descendants. For ease of administration, a separate, companion program is established under Rincon Tribal Code §17.100 for Eligible Tribal Members.

(d) The Rincon Education Scholarship Program ("RESP") shall fund the participation of Eligible Tribal Members and Eligible Lineal Descendants in an educational or Vocational program, including the provision of tools, equipment, materials and supplies to support Educational Endeavors, Tuition, Room and Board and Transportation Costs for college or university attendance, Vocational or technical education, adult, continuing and alternative education as further defined and permitted by Ordinance and written implementation procedures.

§ 17.151     DEFINITIONS

- (8) Pursuant to RTC §§ 6.304(c) and 17.155, written consent by Guarantor to garnish his/her Per Capita for repayment of all RESP Loan funds.

§ 17.155     NATURE OF RESP FUNDS DISBURSEMENT

(a)     RESP Loan and Requirement of Repayment. Subject to Sections 17.156 and 17.157, any and all disbursements of RESP Funds to an RESP Recipient shall constitute an RESP Loan, one-hundred percent (100%) of which shall be subject to repayment by the RESP Recipient and the Guarantor pursuant to the rules and procedures governing Per Capita Payments under RTC § 6.300 et seq., and any policies and procedures then in effect at that time, if the RESP Loan is not converted into an RESP Grant pursuant to Section 17.156.

(b)     Circumstances Triggering Loan Repayment. The requirement to repay a RESP Loan shall be effective in any of the following circumstances:

- (1) the RESP Recipient fails to attain the diploma, certification or degree associated with his or her Educational Endeavor;
- (2) the RESP Recipient fails to complete a quarter, semester or term in which he or she is enrolled; or

Rincon Tribal Code § 17.150

---

- (3) the RESP Recipient does not maintain the minimum grade point average required for continued enrollment at the Eligible Educational Institution.

§ 17.156     RESP GRANT

An RESP Loan shall be converted into an RESP Grant, which is not subject to repayment under Section 17.155, when the RESP Recipient attains the diploma, certification or degree associated with his or her Educational Endeavor.

§ 17.157     RESP LOAN LENIENCY

Once the Education Coordinator requests reimbursement of RESP Funds, an RESP Recipient with a good faith belief that one or more of the circumstances set forth in Section 17.155(b)(1-3) was or were beyond the RESP Recipient's reasonable control may apply in writing to the Tribal Administrator, or designee, for leniency with respect to the repayment requirement for an RESP Loan. All written applications for RESP Loan leniency shall be evaluated by the Tribal Council. Unless reasonable grounds for leniency exist, in the Tribal Council's sole discretion, a RESP Recipient or Guarantor shall repay the Band for the RESP Loan pursuant to Section 17.155(a) and shall not be eligible for future participation in the RESP until the RESP Loan amount is repaid in full.

§ 17.158     RESP REPORTING

(a)     Internal Reporting to Tribal Council. The Education Coordinator shall prepare an annual report for the Tribal Council which summarizes the mandatory and optional annual reporting required from RESP Recipients pursuant to the RESP Manual. In addition, the Tribal Administrator, or designee, shall prepare an annual accounting which identifies the amount of RESP Loans distributed, total repayments, total RESP Grants, and such other information necessary to apprise the Tribal Council of the RESP fund utilization.

(b)     External Reporting to Tribal Community. The Tribal Administrator, or designee, shall prepare an annual report for publication to the tribal community which includes, but is not limited to, the annual summary provided by the Education Coordinator under RTC §17.158(a), a summary of the utilization of the program funding, the identity of graduates and degrees awarded, post-degree activities of RESP Recipients, and such other information as may be deemed pertinent by the Tribal Council and Tribal Administrator, or designee.

§ 17.159      CONFIDENTIALITY AND NON-DISCLOSURE

Unless a person provides written consent to disclose any and all information submitted to the Tribal Government for purposes of the RESP, any and all information submitted to or obtained in the course of administration of the RESP, shall be held in strict confidence subject only to disclosure to authorized representatives of the Tribal Government designated by the Tribal Council to administer the RESP.

§ 17.160      MISCELLANEOUS

(a)      Severability. If any provision of this Ordinance or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held unconstitutional or invalid by the Tribal Council, only the invalid provision shall be severed and the remaining provision and language of this Ordinance shall remain in full force and effect.

(b)      No Waiver of Immunity. All inherent sovereign rights of the Band as a federally recognized Indian tribe with respect to provisions authorized in this Ordinance are hereby expressly reserved, including sovereign immunity from unconsented suit. Nothing in the Ordinance shall be deemed or construed to be a waiver of the Band's sovereign immunity from unconsented suit.

(c)      Adoption. This Ordinance shall become effective upon its approval by majority vote of the Tribal Council of the Band at a duly noticed meeting.
